3:00-3:45PM: Development Sessions (Select a session that catches your interest!)

These sessions are intended to prompt discussion about how we can develop our tools for finding, conducting and sharing our research with the broader community.

Experiments (R5020) – A discussion on how people have been or are trying to use experimental methods in POS research

- ◆ Facilitators: Leigh Tost & Cindy Wang

Field Studies (R6325) – A discussion on new trends people are using in field work and intervention studies

- ◆ Facilitators: Dave Mayer & Warren Nilsson

Qualitative Methods (R4020) – A discussion about what tools or techniques people find helpful in their qualitative research

- ◆ Facilitator: Jane Dutton

Alternate Methods (R6320) – An open discussion on the potential use of research methods that are seen less frequently in existing POS research

- ◆ Facilitators: Oana Branzei (multisensory methods), Theresa Glomb Miner (big data) & Ryan Quinn (discourse analysis and computer simulations)

Editor Session (R0420) – A discussion with current and former journal editors about publishing POS research

- ◆ Facilitators/Editors: Jean Bartunek, Sally Maitlis, & Scott Sonenshein

Coauthor Mingling (Winter Garden) – A venue to simply meet up with a coauthor to discuss and develop an ongoing project

- ◆ Facilitator: Shirli Kopelman
